WHO IS BAMWX?

CHASING DREAMS AND CHASING STORMS.

BAMWX began over a decade ago with founder, Bryan, Amanda and Michael chasing storms across the Midwest. A fun hobby turned into a social media sensation, small weather subscriptions and the dream took off from there.

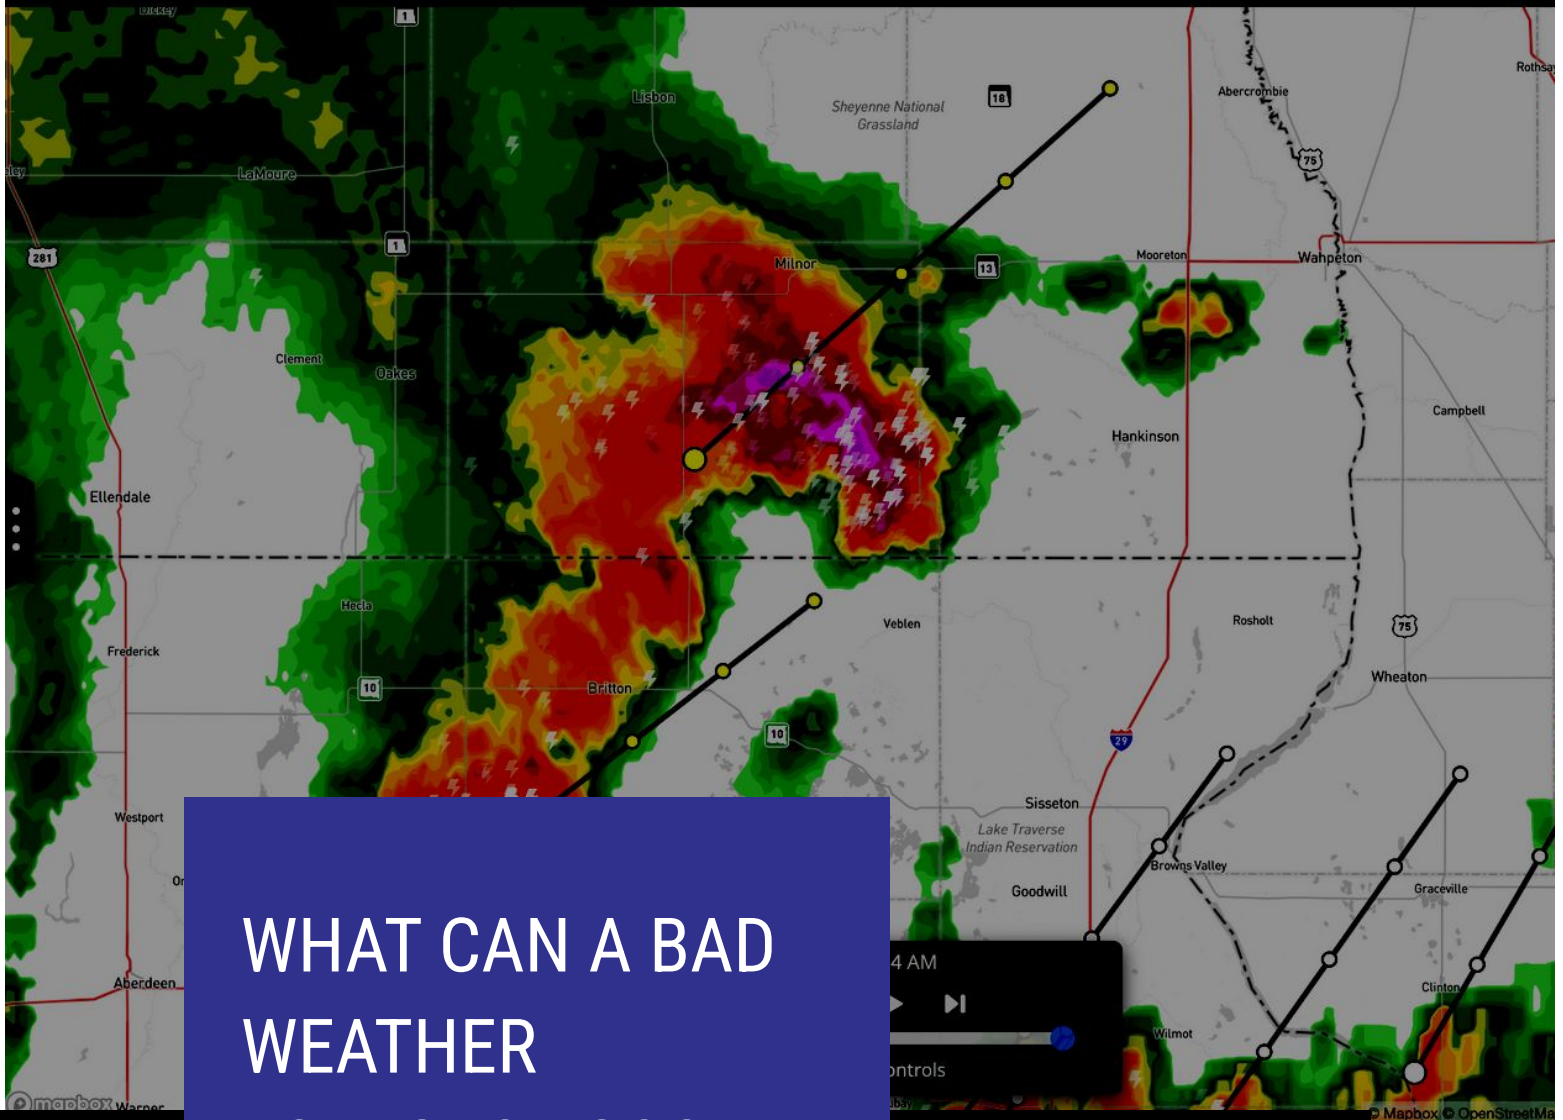

BAMWX now provides forecast and data support for numerous organizations and industries across the entire United States, Canada and South America. BAM has aided in direct weather consulting in major events such as the World Series, Indy 500, Big Ten Championship and Taylor Swift Concerts.
